

Notice of concern

Building Project/ Object address
Client	Contractor
In accordance with our inspection and due diligence obligations as the contractor for the flooring / parquet work, we hereby report concerns for the construction project mentioned.
<input type="checkbox"/> against the nature of the found surface.
<input type="checkbox"/> against the improper room climate conditions / insufficient working conditions.
<input type="checkbox"/> against the intended construction of the floor structure or the work execution.
<input type="checkbox"/> against
Statement
In our view, a proper execution of work is therefore not possible. The following damages, up to a complete destruction of the floor construction, may occur:
We ask for your notice and written statement about the further procedure or to sign the disclaimer of the warranty listed below by :
Date, signature of the contractor

Disclaimer of warranty

Despite the concerns registered above, the work is to be carried out in the form intended so far or under the given conditions.
The client hereby releases the contractor from all warranty and compensation claims that may result from the above mentioned concerns.
Date, Signature of the client of the flooring work

